“The pandemic has hit global trade at an unprecedented speed and scale. With challenges facing production and transportation, the crisis also hit the supply chains, making it difficult for some countries to ensure the supply of their needs, particularly medical equipment and food commodities. This will lead to Governments and businesses prioritizing regional cooperation on trade and investments and more diverse supply chains, minimizing risk of disruptions later on.”

Aymen Kasem, ITFC’s Trade Development Division Manager joined experts from the government and private sectors of 12 countries during the World Islamic Trade Forum Special Web Conference, for a high-level conversation about the impact of COVID-19 on Trade and Tourism.

WHICH ONE ARE YOU?

A pessimist sees the difficulty in every opportunity,
An optimist sees the opportunity in every difficulty,
A realist sees things as it is!

My mother always say, "silent water run deep".

Similarly, if a person has anything in plenty he/she should not show it off to make others feels small.

On the contrary, he/she should be humble enough to help others. If he/she can with his/her power or position.

I am blessed with I have today. I come a long way from wrapping dumplings at my aunt noodle stall as a child while my father worked as a contractor to find income to pay for my mothers medical bills in Malaysia, where I grew up.

One blessing we had: my father was the son of Hainanese chef who cooked for the military and he learnt growing up the importance of discipline, decisive action, determination & dedication.

Thank you Fazil Irwan International Strategy Institute 国际战略研究院 for this amazing opportunity to share my insights and message which has been a big part of my daily routine and inspired me to help others in small ways, to give hope to those who struggle, to face their obstacles with strength and optimism, and to have a positive attitude that serves as an example to others.

"Our chief want is someone who will inspire us to be what we know we could
